

775 Heinz Ave,
Berkeley, CA 94710

July 3, 2017

RE: QuantERA AZX Proposal

To Whom it May Concern:

As quantum information systems start to scale into systems capable of prototype quantum computing, the design of programming tools and intermediate representations is particularly important. The AZX project is a strong proposal will take important steps towards this effort.

I am happy to serve on the board of advisors for this program.

Sincerely,

William Zeng

Director of Engineering
Rigetti Computing